Comrade Clark called upon the Commander to decide whether the action of the Post in the case of E. B. Leavitt last week was correct or not. Commander decided that said action was correct in accordance with the Constitution. Comrade Clark then offered the following to the Council of Administration. Upon motion of Comrade Clark the following Gentleman handed in his name for admission to this Post, viz. Mr. Nathaniel Clark. After which was referred to the Committee on Membership. Comrade Clark reported that he was not addicted to intemperance but his intemperate character was not such as to render him a suitable Comrade. Upon his reaction it was ascertained that he had discarded his intemperance and for four months had belonged to the temperance Society and had not tasted a drop of intoxicating liquors nor even desired and that the vote against him was made was circulated by a personal enemy, and was not true in fact. And furthermore that one of the Committee regretted the vote thinking it was unkind instead of Unfavorable and would not have signed it had he known its import. Mr. Nath. Clark to stand if within your power. The first investigation and ballot null and void and allow to be Commander now. Without quoting the 21st Article prescribed in the Constitution

Report of committee in regard to increase our relief fund

The committee appointed to devise means to increase our relief fund made the following report.

Lynn Sept 14th 1871

To Officers and members of Genl Lander Post No 5 Dept Mass. G.A.R. Owing to our close connection with Boston where everything dramatic is produced first class, the cost of bringing out a drama with the artists to suit a Lynn audience, would leave (with average houses) too small a margin, and in view of the hard winter approaching your Committee think it inexpedient to recommend the production of anything dramatic this season. But your committee were unanimously in favor of a Fair being held under the auspices of the post on or about the third week in february 1872. And your committee would earnestly recommend that a suitable committee be appointed at once for that purpose, and your committee are of the opinion that the Fair committee should consist of three Comrades, a Chairman, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and have full powers to appoint sub committees to act under their direction.

Your committee earnestly recommend the building of a ~~suitable~~ Coliseum in which to hold the Fair. This building to be disposed of by lot (to ticket holders). According to the best information the committee could get, this building would cost about ($2,000) Two thousand dollars. Now this may seem a large undertaking at the first thought, but when we come to consider the money we have to pay in rent, for a hall in which to hold our fairs, and the use this building could be put to after the Fair, and the extra price we should get for our tickets, by this inducement offered for people to buy, your committee honestly believe that there is money in it. The committee earnestly beg the Post to give this a careful consideration, and we will cheerfully assist in carrying out the decission of your better judgement. All of which is respectfully submitted

"Whereas: In accordance with the divine mandate
"It is appointed unto all men once to die", our respected Comrade, James Mc. Devitt has been called from our midst, to enjoy, we devoutly trust, the Endless Pleasures of a better Existence;

Resolved: That whilst we deeply feel this we can unite our testimony to that of all who knew him in praise of his manliness of character, his devotion to duty, his unfaltering Energy in every good work; to his Excellence as a citizen, no less than his bravery as a soldier, And that while we mourn his loss to our ranks of a Comrade tried in battle, to the State a patriotic citizen-but received promotion at the hands of Him

"who doeth all things well."

Resolved: That to the Widow, so sorely stricken,
